The lateness of the date you give us, he is unable to state whether the report from his Committee on our question will not be made previous to your possible arrival.

Under these circumstances will you be kind enough to write me, at my expense, at our headqua-earliest date is that you can possibly give us. In the meantime I will consult others relative to your coming that we may secure your valuable assistance if possible.

I am Sir, most respectfully,
Jean Brooks Greenleaf,
President N.Y. S.W.S.A.

Hon. Joseph Carey
United States Senate
Washington D.C.

Sir – In the absence of Miss Anthony from Albany for a flying trip to Kansas, I must give answer to your kind favor of June second.

I have consulted with the Chairman of the Suffrage Committee of the Constitutional Convention with regard to you coming and he, while expressing an ardent desire to hear you, says that, owing to lateness of the date you give us, he is unable to state whether the report from his committee on our question will not be made previous to your possible arrival.

Under these circumstances will you be kind enough to wire me, at my expense, at our headquarters No. 2 Capitol, Albany what the earliest date is that you can possibly give us. In the meantime I will consult others relative to your coming that we may secure you valuable assistance if possible.

I am sir,

Most respectfully

Jean Brooks Greenleaf

President N.Y.S.W.S.A.
