Dear Senator Carey:

My Father
was very much disappointed that he did not see you and Mrs Carey in Washington
- and so was I. We were out for a drive when you called. We left the City before you returned, as I inquired at the hotel a short time before our departure. I mailed you a N.Y. Times this morning with an account of a Woman's Suffrage meeting. I thought you would be glad to know that Mrs Whipple was still true to her Wyoming

Dear Senator Carey:

My father was very much disappointed that he did not see you and Mrs. Carey in Washington – and so was I. We were out for a drive when you called. We left the city before you returned, as I ?/ at the hotel a short time before our departure. I mailed you a N. Y. Times this morning with an account of a woman's suffrage meeting. I thought you would be glad to know that Mrs. Whipple was still true to her Wyoming training. They were anxious to see a woman who had voted, so she exhibited herself and made a speech.

With kind regards to Mrs. Carey.

Very truly yours,
