Thank you most cordially for your greeting,
sent on the occasion of my birthday!

At seventy-five one finds many compensations.
Long life to you.

Dear Friend: I have been so overwhelmed with things for many weeks that I have not completed a day's tasks before the next one came with a new flood. I ~~expected~~ to send you a nice in answer to yours on Xmas day but there was so much company I could not.
The birthday was an avalanche. Now I can see a little way ahead and some day I'll get a letter to you.

Lovingly as friend
