

UNION PACIFIC RAIL ROAD.

OFFICE OF THE MASTER OF TRANSPORTATION.

OMAHA, NEB.,

April 11th 1867.

My Dear Wife

I drop you a line this morning to let you know that I am better. I arrived here night before last. The Roads in this Country are all under water our Road is impassable hope to get out and at work soon we are all ready to go to work as soon as the water subsides I have not been in our house yet, will write you again tomorrow I hope you are better at home than when I left. This Country is flooded with men the town is full Love to all at home & kisses to yourself & little John
Love Bill and Rep you Happy
Jack

UNION PACIFIC RAIL ROAD.
OFFICE OF THE MASTER OF TRANSPORTATION.

OMAHA, NEB., April 11th.1867.

My Dear Wife

I drop you a line this morning to let you know that I am better. I arrived here night before last. the roads in this country are all under water our road is impassable. hope to get out and at work soon. we are all ready to go to work as soon as the water subsides. I have not been in our house yet, will write you again tomorrow. I hope you are better at home than when I left. This country is flooded with men. The town is full. Love to all at home & kisses to yourself & little John. God Bless and Keep you Happy

Jack

Omaha April 13th 1867.

My Dear Wife

It is raining this evening and making the prospect as gloomy as possible the Missouri is coming over its Banks and rising all the time. Miles of Road is washed away in the Platte valley so that we cannot get over the Road for a few days even if it stops raining. we are all in a heap. generally but will be all right in a few days I hope I have not been inside of our house yet but will have Mr Hall move out next week and have it fixed up and some things put into the garden Roter had one of his Eyes kicked out a few days before I got here it is too bad. Ed is over in Iowa after Beebe cattle Dan & Mollie are well I have only had a few glimpses at Mollie yet. the Road between here and Boon is badly washed away so you can see we have too much cold water for comfort or profit. I would like to be with you & little John to night I am lonesome without you Darling I love you both very much write often give my love to all at home I hope you are all better by this time
God Bles and keep you happy JACK

Omaha April 13th, 1867.

My dear Wife

It is raining this evening and making the prospect as gloomy as possible. The Missouri is coming over its banks and rising all the time. Miles of road is washed away in the Platte Valley so that we cannot get over the road for a few days even if it stops raining. we are all in a heap-generally but will be all right in a few days, I hope I have not been inside of our house yet but will have Mr Hall move out next week and have it fixed up and some things put into the garden. Robert had one of his eyes kicked out a few days before I got here. it is too bad. Ed is over in Iowa after beef cattle. Dan & Mollie are well I have only had a few glimpses at Mollie yet. The road between here and Boon is badly washed away so you can see we have too much cold water for comfort or profit. I would like to be with you and little John tonight I am lonesome without you Darling. I love you both very much, write often. give my love to all at home. I hope you are all better by this time God bless and keep you happy

Jack