

Buffalo Feb<sup>10</sup> 1868

My Dear Wife

owing to a disarrangement of the board of directors, the work for which we bid will not be declared off until tomorrow. I expected all along to start for home this morning and have now hardly time to get this note to the mail train. Expect to be home on Friday but may not before Saturday morning on the early train. I am sorry to be away from you so long, but be assured that you are continually in my mind that my love for you is not diminished but on the contrary absence seems to increase it. if such a thing be possible) be as happy as you can dear girl until I get back, and believe me ever Yours devoted & Loving Husband

J. S. Casement

Buffalo Feb 10th 1868

My Dear Wife

Owing to a disarrangement of the board of directors the work for which we bid will not be declared off until tomorrow. I expected all along to start for home this morning and have now hardly time to get this note to the mail train. I expect to be home on Friday but may not before Saturday morning on the early train. I am sorry to be away from you so long, but be assured that you are continually (sic) on my mind that my love for you is not diminished but on the contrary absence seems to increas (sic) it if such a thing be possible/ be as happy as you can dear girl until I get back, and believe me ever
Your devoted and Loving Husband

J S Casement