My dear Casement-

Can you tell me where Mr James Paine is, and whether he intends to come out here? I would like very much to have good man that that I can rely upon in case I have appointments to make, but you see it would not do for me to send out of the Territory for men to take office. If he was here today I could, I think, do something for him, but as he is not here I will have to make another appointment. Of what County in Wyoming does Mr. Paine call himself a resident?

Frank [?] went to Sweetwater today. When are you coming out?

Yours

My Dear Husband..

It has been so long since I have written a letter that I hardly know how to begin - This has been a very busy week for me but I am feeling pretty well and believe I have not got the blues half as bad as when you left for I was so disappointed & lonesome in thinking of your going and I did want to go with you - The children are very well - John gave us a big fright yesterday - He was missing & all hands turned out to hunt him - Pa saw him come up the bank and found Johnny sitting on a stone out in the river quite a piece with a stick in his hand fishing - He was wet up to his waist - What a lucky escape

I tremble when I think of it - and how much more frightened I shall be when he is lost - for I have always supposed him at one of the neighbors - he never went to the river before -

I send you two despatches from Mr Dillow - Pa has sent copy's of them in a letter to Dan to Echo City - There are other letters here one from Ken or Gov. Campbell but I guess nothing of great importance.

I hope you will have a good visit and come home soon.

To the wife that loves you dearly
Your loving & affectionate
Frank.

My Dear Husband.

It has been so long since I have written a letter that I hardly know how to begin – This has been a very busy week for me but I am feeling pretty well and believe I have not got the blues half as bad as when you left for I was disappointed [crossed out] lonesome in thinking of your going and I did want to go with you The children are very well – John gave us a big fright yesterday – he was missing & all hands turned out to hunt him – Pa saw Jano [?] come up the bank and found Johnny sitting on a stone out in the river quite a piece with a stick in his hand fishing – he was wet up to his waist – What a lucky escape I tremble when I think of it – and how much more frightened I shall be when he is lost for I have always supposed him at one of the neighbors – he never went to the river before-

I send you two despatches (sic) from Mr Dillon – Pa has sent copy's (sic) of them in a letter to Dan to Echo City—There are three letters here one from Gen or Gov. Campbell but I guess nothing of great importance.

I hope you will have a good visit and come home soon. [?] to the wife that loves you dearly

Your loving & affectionate

Frank.
